A GOOD RECORD.
With the end of the season for ready outdoor employment drawing near, much of the city improvement work will soon stop. When it does the administration and the members of the general council may look back with no small degree of pride in a summer's achievement. A few years ago Paducah's streets were a byword.
Now practically the whole of the town-town section is paved and the concrete gutters and sidewalks constructed must be measured in miles.
They extend from the river to Twenty third street and wherever the paving is done. Besides this work, miles of streets are being graded and graveled and the contract already is let for the construction of a new combined sanitary and storm water sewer to extend past the High school building and the Illinois Central railroad round house and shops, where such facilities are greatly needed. Then, too, the municipal lighting plant is being enlarged to supply more lights. All this work is being done without a bond issue. The general council has done all things wisely and well during its term. Economy has been the watchword, and it was adopted when the tax rate was lowered in the face of a mighty protest that sufficient revenue would not be realized. The hands have been carefully guarded, and the councilmen have spent many hours studying how to make a half dollar do what their predecessors had found a dollar had pressed to accomplish, but they succeeded, and not a breath of scandal has been heard throughout the life of the two wards. Although of opposite political belief, Mayor Yeiser and the council in the main have worked in harmony, and both the executive and legislative departments seemed imbued with a desire to see how much they could advance the interests of Paducah while the summer sun was shining.

Where is the spirit of old Kenucky? Is the voice of oratory no longer to ring out from the hustings, sacrificed to the momentary interest of modern political expediency? Did the old school, perhaps, the impracticable, but always the picturesque one, die out with the retirement of Blackburn? Beckham and Mc-Creary, who so valiantly challenged each other to duel on the stump, have signed a joint statement that the challenges were but ill-considered vaporings. Their friends agree that it would be better politics to conduct a gum shoe canvass for votes. The hope of state Democracy is pinned to this fragile silver of harmony. This is the first proposition on which the friends of the governor and the senator have been able to agree. Come, come, Gentlemen, this is to be a long campaign, and it is costing the Democrats $40,- 000. They are entitled to something for their money, and talk is cheap.

As we might have anticipated the party organs, which only require a subject without information on it, have seized the Cuban civil war as an opportunity to launch their puny darts at the administration. They see in the dispatching of American war vessels to Havana a patent scheme of Roosevelt to assume sovereignty over the island. They have not waited to see the outcome, they ignore the fact that American interests are among the largest in the island and it is the duty of this government to protect its citizens when the Cuban government cannot. Fortunately for our peace of mind, we have confidence that American interests are in good hands and we will come out of the affair with our national honor untarnished and our influence greatly strengthened.

Some newspapers print the news the day it happens, and then its more deliberate rivals refer to it the next day contemptuously as if they knew it all the time but didn't believe it.
Subscribers to both papers know which gets the news first and understand the animus of its vilani-mous contemporary; but the small portion of the reading public which only sees the paper that gets "beat" on the story and reads its snarling denial the following day, doesn't know what the editor is driving at.
The moral is: When you get "beat," acknowledge the corn and come back when you have the chance. We expect to see the paper that failed to get the new evidence in the Loving case yesterday attempt to belittle the Exclusive story The Sun had about it.

Madame Humbert and her spouse, whose reputations as swindlers were only eclipsed by the later day accomplishments of Cassie Chadwick, are free, having served their time in a French prison. They borrowed millions of francs from Parisians, representing themselves to be heirs of a mythical uncle in America.
Their scheme was as flimsy, and mysteriously successful as Mrs.
Chadwick's.

Ollie James will invade the Sixth district, it is reported, and aid Congressman Rhinock, whose seat is in danger. If Chairman Dehoo had permitted the committee to name a Republican candidate for congress in the First district we might have made it sufficiently interesting to keep Ollie at home.

A New Yorker reports to the Baltimore police that he had $10,000 worth of uncut diamonds in his vest pocket in a sleeping car and when he awakened they were gone. Many's the time we have had fortunes tucked away in our vest pockets, only to awaken and find the pockets empty.

From the past week's hearings it would seem that the department of agriculture was not much stuck on the packers' old labels. —Livingston Banner.

But the labels are stuck on the old cans, and that is where the packers lose.

Bryan was greeted by a large crowd at Louisville, but southern leaders were conspicuously absent.
Senator Carmack, recently defeated by Bob Taylor in Tennessee, and former Governor Stone, of Missouri, were the only distinguished visitors.

President Roosevelt will send Bacon with Taft to Cuba in the interest of peace. We trust the president is not trying to deceive the hungry insurgents with the name of the assistant secretary of state.

It seems that the feminine portion of the crowd, which attended the unveiling of the McKinley memorial at Columbus, O., really went there to witness the unveiling of Mrs. Longworth.

It would be the supreme test of the efficiency and discipline of a state militia—setting the men to guarding saloons on a hot Sunday.

Ten workmen on a hand car were drowned in Toledo, O. We did not believe that possible anywhere except in Calro.

Fairbanks Shuns Boston.
Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks left Concord, N. H., yesterday for his home in Indianapolis. On the way he declined an invitation to a luncheon in Boston.

HONEYMOON COOKING.

Mrs. Newbride: "I'm sorry you don't like my cooking." Mr. Newbride: "Why, my dear, I've never complained of it."
Mrs. Newbride: "But you're always growling about your stomach."

ADMITS ROBBERY
OF CLAUDE BASS

The next morning I went to Little Cypress on a freight train—the local —and that night I returned with a cook of the section gang and another man on a freight. I spent the night at a house on Husbands street.

"I do not know how much money I got off Bass, but will say it was not more than $20. I gave my mother, Jennie Shaw, $3, but this was money I earned off the railroad sections. I remained in Paducah until the morning of the 23d and went to Princeton, Henderson, Owensboro and other places. I had learned that Bass died and saw I was in for it. I realized that I acted in self-defense and for this reason thought it best to remain a fugitive no more, and came home."

Graham stated to the policeman that this is what he will swear to and he hopes the court will be lenient.
He realized he had talked too much to Mrs. Fletcher and the coils of the law were tightening about him, and he gave up.

"As to the iron bar and pistol," he explained, "after hitting Bass I took the iron bar and threw it as far towards the middle of the gravel pit as I could send it. I then got his money and went to Mrs. Fletcher's.
The pistol I gave away. It was Bass' and I had none."

Pitiful Plight.
Graham's plight is a pitiful one.
He smokes cigarettes incessantly and seems nervous. He was shaved this morning by a fellow prisoner, but will not be given a weapon of any kind.

The story that he wanted to commit suicide is true. He did tell Nicholas Gaines, a fellow prisoner, that he was desperate and would kill himself.

Those who see him daily notice a change. He is resigned and seems to get weaker daily. His mental powers seem affected and Graham stated that he made a full and complete confession to ease himself.

The work of Clark in the matter is to be commended. He secured the first clew, established the identity of the murderer and laid traps for catching him.

Graham has a little money coming to him from the railroad and Policeman Clark will try to secure it for him.

RUMORS DENIED.

That Bank of France Will Export $15,000,000 in Gold.

Paris, Sept. 15.—Rumors that the Bank of France had agreed to permit the export of $15,000,000 in gold for the relief of the New York money market having caused disquietude on the bourse, the following semi-official statement in behalf of the bank has been made known:
"These rumors are false. The Bank of France has refused absolutely on every occasion to allow gold to leave for that destination. It is possible, however, that the Bank of France, owing to the rise in the rate of exchange in London and in the event of Egyptian requirements becoming pressing, will export gold to London, but such a movement would necessitate a rate of exchange of 25.20.

PRESIDING ELDERS ARRAIGNED.

Neglect of Old Ministers Charged at Lebanon, Ind., Conference.

Lebanon, Ind., Sept. 15.—Dr. W.
P. McKinsey, chaplain of the Indiana boys' reform school, caused a small sensational at the northwest Methodist conference here today by arraiging the presiding elders of the Crawfords-ville and Greencastle districts for alleged neglect of superannuated ministers. Some of these old men, he declared, are actually suffering from want.

At the Preachers' society meeting H. A. Gobin, of Depaw University, was re-elected president, W. P. Mc-Kinsey, of Plainsfield, vice president, and H. L. Kindig, of Rensselaer, secretary.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society and Preachers' Aid society anniversaries were celebrated with addresses by Mrs. S. W. Stephens, of Greencastle, and Rev. William A.
Quayle, of Chicago.

ACIDITY

Manifest in Correspondence About the Mutual.

New York, Sept. 15.—The controversy between the Mutual Life Insurance company, the international policyholders' committee and the newly formed Policyholders' Protective Association of the Mutual Life Insurance company was signalized today by two statements. President Peabody, of the Mutual Life company, sharply answered the charges brought by ex-Justice Alton B.
Parker against the company in his letter to Bishop C. McCabe, of the Methodist Episcopal church. He said the facts were not as stated in the letter, which he asserted misquoted the testimony taken before the Armstrong legislative investigating committee.

KILL TWENTY AMERICANS

For Each Mexican Revolutionist Who is Injured.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 15.—A letter signed "The Liberal Party" received by the Douglas Daily American declares that if the so-called Mexican revolutionists arrested there are deported to Mexico to be shot, "for each Mexican injured he will kill twenty Americans."

Douglas authorities believe the letter was sent by friends of the prisoners. American soldiers are patrolling the border.

An Assistant of Nature.

One of the most interesting things of this day of interesting things, is the great success being achieved by osteopathy.

There is hardly a day that some cure which is deserving of attracting much attention, is not made by this new science, and the more it is studied, and the better it is known, the easier it is to see why it is so.

Osteopathy merely aids nature to cure.

It is a system of healing built up on demonstrable facts.

It discovers the cause of disease, and treats it by scientific manipulations in order to correct disorders and bring about a natural condition.

Nearly all diseases yield to the treatment, and the diseases local to Paducah do so most readily.

In rheumatism, liver and bowel, or stomach troubles, chronic headaches tired-out, run-down conditions, nervousness, its success has been very marked.

I should like to have you call to discuss your particular case at any time, and not only will I tell you frankly what osteopathy will do for you, but refer you to well-known Paducah people whom it has done much for.

WOMAN MISSING
FROM HOSPITAL

Blood-Soaked Clothing and Letters Found.

Superintendent Under Arrest Pending Investigation of Many Strange Stories.

BUFFALO'S HORRIBLE MYSTERY

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Dr. W.
W. Turver, who conducted hospitals at 717 Niagara street and Prospect avenue, in this city, is a prisoner at police headquarters, and the police are trying to unravel the mystery of the sudden disappearance of Gertrude Knight, of Philadelphia, from his Niagara street establishment, where large quantities of bloodstained clothes and bedding were found.
The police were first attracted to Dr. Turver's Niagara street place on Wednesday morning, when, following a quarrel with Miss Geddes, his head nurse, Dr. Turver went through the place with an axe, smashing furniture and windows. While investigating the cause of the disturbance, the police found a bed saturated with blood and a furnace partly filled with bloosodaked cotton.

It was learned that a patient who gave her name as Gertrude Knight, of Philadelphia, occupied the room on Tuesday. Miss Geddes, the nurse, told District Attorney Abbott that his patient left the hospital on Wednesday and took the 11 a. m. train for Philadelphia. Her testimony in this respect is partly confirmed by Mrs. Ayres, a boarding house keeper, to whom Dr. Turver sent some of his patients. She said a woman came to her place Tuesday night, and left for Philadelphia Wednesday.
She did not know her name, however. While investigating the Knight case, the police learned that Edith Pinner, of Hoboken, N. J., died at the Prospect-avenue hospital September 8. Miss Pinner's body was shipped to her home at Hoboken, N.
J., by Undertaker M. J. Progly.

In the last year, Prouty stated, he has buried six women and two children for Turver. It was first suspected that the Pinner woman and the woman who disappeared from the Niagara street place were the same.
This theory was dismissed yesterday when a trunk found in the Niagara street hospital was opened by the police. It was filled with women's fine clothing and a bundle of letters addressed to Gertrude Knight.

INVENTOR'S RICH DREAM ENDS

Escanaba Man, Unable to Cash Draft, Wrecks Model of Turbine.

Escanaba, Mich., Sept. 15.—James F. Devlin, the locomotive fireman who was reported to have sold a patent for a new steam turbine to the North German Lloyd steamship line for $1,000,000, and left for the east to begin the construction of an engine, has returned. Devlin says the man who claimed to be Attorney W. J. Welch of a New York firm of lawyers refused to cash the draft which he said he had for the patent.
At Fort Du Lac Devlin became suspicious and returned to Escanaba.
Devlin claims he gave a demonstration of the workings of his patent before Welch and representatives of three trans-Atlantic lines, after which he destroyed the model and will not build another until he receives his price.

BADGER MAYOR UPROOTS TRACK

Janesville Executive Leads in Encounter With St. Paul Road.

Janesville, Wis., Sept. 15.—The fire department acting under the orders of Mayor Hutchinson, tore up sixty feet of the switching tracks of the St. Paul road this afternoon.
A policeman is stationed at the point to prevent the railroad company relaying the track. The track was laid several years ago over Sunday after several encounters between the section hands and citizens. Two weeks ago the council ordered the track taken up. Then the council and the company came to an agreement and the track was relaid. Public indignation was so strong that Mayor Hutchinson ordered it torn up and superintended the work.

Half-Sick

When your nerves are weak, when you are easily tired, when you feel all run down, then is the time you need a good strong tonic—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Your doctor will tell you why it has such power over weak nerves, why it makes the blood rich, and why it gives courage and strength. Ask him if it is not just the medicine you need.

TENNESSEAN ARRESTED.

Charged With Inciting Timid Depositors of Hibernia Bank.

San Francisco, Sept. 15.—John Carter was arrested today in front of the Hibernia Bank, where he was exciting the timid depositors, who are continuing the run on that bank.
Carter was urging the elderly women in the throng to dispose of their bank books to him, declaring that the failure of the bank was imminent. The arrest was made by Joseph Tobin, attorney for the bank.

The bank officials declare Carter was employed by enemies of the bank to spread false reports of its stability. Carter denies this. He says he is a recent arrival from Tennessee.

WINS BRIDE IN RECORD TIME

Colorado Doctor Wows and Weds a Benton Harbor Girl in Few Hours.

Denver, Sept. 15.—Between the steps of a train and the entrance to the union depot Dr. C. O'Brien of Greely, proposed to and was accepted by Miss Wilma Merrill of Benton Harbor, Mich., today. By the time a cabby had driven the couple to a hotel Dr. O'Brien had secured the consent of Miss Merrill to an immediate marriage. The ceremony was performed at once in St. Leo's Roman Catholic church by Rev. Father Carey. The bride has been teaching school at Missoula, Mont. She met the doctor casually one year ago, but there had been no courtship.
